Date : 01/11/2006

ORAL JUDGMENT

1. In this petition, the petitioner society has challenged order passed by the authorities liquidating the society under Section 107 of the Gujarat Cooperative Societies Act as upheld by an order passed by the Additional Registrar (Appeals).

2. After some discussion at bar, learned advocate Shri Joshi for the petitioner submitted that he is unable to supply the current status of the condition of petitioner-society since despite his best efforts, he has not received instructions from the petitioner. In absence of any material regarding the present condition of functioning of the petitioner-society, it is not possible for this Court to examine the issues further. Since learned advocate for the petitioner is unable to supply such details, for want of instructions, this petition is disposed of for want of prosecution. If the petitioner approaches this Court within reasonable time making out grounds for not supplying instructions to its learned advocate, surely, the Court would examine such a request at the appropriate time.

3. The petition is disposed of. Rule is discharged. Interim relief is vacated. No order as to costs.
